AFGE YOUNG

Union organizing is more than contracts — it's about empowering individuals, fostering community, and fighting for fair wages. We're calling on you, the heartbeat of our union, to step up and be part of the change.

Today's younger generation is socially conscious and action-oriented. We need them as union organizers to shape a better future. If you're passionate about social justice and equality, consider becoming a driving force for positive change within our local labor movement.

To our seasoned members, your wisdom is invaluable. Mentor and support the next generation of union organizers. Share your experiences, guide them through challenges, and let the combination of your knowledge and their passion create a powerful force for change.

THIS CALL TO ACTION IS CRUCIAL. THE FUTURE OF LABOR UNIONS DEPENDS ON THE DEDICATION OF OUR YOUNG PEOPLE. INVEST IN THEM TODAY, AND LET'S ENSURE THE TORCH OF LABOR UNIONISM IS PASSED TO CAPABLE HANDS, READY TO UPHOLD WORKERS' RIGHTS AND STRIVE FOR A JUST AND FAIR WORKPLACE.
